

CURRICULUM VITAE

ADRIAAN VAN DER WALT

Adriaan van der Walt (B Juris BA (Labour Relations) LLB) is an associate professor and erstwhile Head of Department: Mercantile Law at the Faculty of Law, Nelson Mandela University in Port Elizabeth, South Africa.

He has extensive experience in labour-law teaching, practice and research and also heads the Labour and Social Security Law Unit, a labour-law engagement entity at NMU. In addition to labour-law teaching for LLB students, Adriaan is coordinator and principal lecturer on the LLM (Labour Law) and the Postgraduate Diploma in Labour Law Practice presented at NMU. Adriaan has been a senior commissioner of the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration since its inception in 1996 and does work as labour mediator, arbitrator and relationship-building facilitator.

He was the ministerially-appointed chairperson of the Employment Conditions Commission, a statutory commission that advised the Minister of Labour on minimum wages and other conditions of employment in vulnerable sectors of the economy for a number of years and was appointed as chairperson of the National Minimum Wage Commission with effect from 1 January 2019. He is also the editor of Obiter, an accredited peer-reviewed law journal.